

Week 7—Listening guide
The Woman at the Well Teaches Us How to Be Brave

The Context—John 4:3-8

1. The first thing that leaps out at us from this passage is Jesus _____ to go through Samaria.
2. Jesus did not allow religious traditions or cultural taboos to hinder Him from His God-appointed mission: redemption and reconciliation through His _____.
3. Jesus' actions reveal two things. He was involved with people on a _____ level and a _____ level.
4. The Gospel moves on lines of _____.

The Conversation—John 4:9-26:

5. Jesus told the woman about two things: the _____ and the living _____.
6. Grace is: God meeting me at my point of need through the _____ of Jesus Christ.
7. Jesus initiates; we _____. (See John 15:16)
8. The very miracle water they celebrated at the Feast actually symbolized their _____ that would come through relationship with the Person of their Messiah, Jesus.
9. The water symbolizes both salvation and the indwelling _____ work in the life of those who hunger and thirst for God.
10. Not only does Jesus save us, He _____ us too.
11. The _____ has an essential role in the life of every believer with a vast job description.
12. Jesus will always deal with our _____.
13. Jesus wants to save entire _____, so that He can save cities and nations.
14. Her _____ was impacting her present.
15. Jesus is a _____.

The Connections—John 4:27-42:

16. She went from conversation to _____.
17. The empty _____ symbolized her former way of life.
18. A true revelation of Jesus Christ will always yield _____.
19. A true revelation of Jesus Christ will always result in _____.
20. God used the most least-likely person to influence an entire _____.
21. Jesus takes a daily, mundane task of drawing water from a well, and transforms it into a metaphor of _____, revealing to us that His incarnation changes everything.
22. As we come daily to the well of our salvation, we meet the One who makes life real, relevant, and _____.
23. Worship is not a destination, it's a _____.

“Living as one truly loved and cherished by God is the crossbeam that supports an abundance in Christ.

Belovedness is the center of being, the only real identity, God's only name for you, the only identity He gives you. And you won't ever feel like you belong anywhere until you choose to listen to your heart beating out that you do---unconditionally, irrevocably. Until you let yourself feel the truth of that --the truth your heart has always known because He who made it wrote your name right there.”

(Ann Voskamp, The Broken Way)