7. The second thing to do is restate basic _____.
8. Third, apply _____ to the problem.
9. If still in doubt, commit the problem to God in _____.
10. Identifying as a Christian means we know that God came to earth in the form of a man, _____, and He became subject to suffering and death Himself.
11. We don't know the reason why God allows evil and suffering to continue, but at least we know what the reason is _____, what it can't be. It can't be that He doesn't love us!
12. Through the cross and the gospel of Jesus Christ, we can know His _____ and that is what we need most.

“God gave us Jesus...if God didn't withhold from us His very own Son, will God withhold anything we need? If trust must be earned, hasn't God unequivocally earned our trust with the bark on the raw wound, the thorns pressed into the brow, your name on the cracked lips? How will He not also graciously give us all things He deems best and right? He's already given the incomprehensible.”

Lessons out of Habakkuk 1:12-17:

13. Habakkuk found comfort in knowing that he served the _____ God.
14. Habakkuk speaks to the most over-arching characteristic of God, His _____.
15. In verse 12, he acknowledges God's _____.
16. Habakkuk declares God's faithfulness by calling Him a _____.
17. As Habakkuk labored for the revelation, he was able to realize all that God was doing was a tool in His hand for the correction and purification of His people; it was to do them _____.
18. The main thing we see Habakkuk doing as he worked through all of this is _____.

“We become like whatever we worship. There is nothing greater that God could want for His people than for us to worship Him, for there is nothing greater than Himself. God doesn't long for our worship because He is an egotist in need of our affirmation. Instead, He longs for our transformation that takes place in the glory of His Presence, the glory that descends in times of worship.”

~ Bill Johnson, Face to Face With God
